Lavanett receives GNA's 2021 Canadian Distributor of the Year award

Oshkosh, Wis.—Girbau North America (GNA) recently recognized Lavanett, in St. Laurent, Quebec, with its second consecutive Canadian Distributor of the Year award.

Led by Earl Eichen, Lavanett was recognized for exemplary performance in the on-premise and vended laundry markets within the province of Quebec. “Earl is a longtime GNA business partner and has found ways to sell all of our brands into the Quebec market, including Girbau Industrial, Continental Girbau, LG and Poseidon,” said GNA Vice President of Sales Joel Jorgensen. “Lavanett’s expert team does an outstanding job in every service area, including sales, service and parts. This award is GNA’s recognition of that success.”

Established in 1996, Lavanett employs 20 team members and provides laundry and textile care solutions, parts and service to customers throughout Canada. The Lavanett team is comprised of highly motivated and dedicated individuals committed to customer satisfaction and service, according to Eichen.

“Our partnership with GNA has been built on very strong relationships with so many talented people employed there,” said Eichen. “The trust, respect and understanding shown to us since 2001 is deeply appreciated and has allowed us to firmly establish the GNA brands in our part of Canada. Most importantly, the constant support and encouragement we receive from all levels of GNA is always present and unwavering. There is something to be said about a relationship lasting and flourishing for more than 20 years, through thick and thin, that to this day still continues to grow and evolve.”
