A Better Laundry Solution

The Difference is in the Details

Premier-service car washes strive to deliver unrivaled service and customer care in a fast-paced environment. But, they often struggle to find an environmentally friendly way to clean towels without constant washer monitoring. Continental Girbau E-Series Washer-Extractors, however, don't require monitoring thanks to superior programmability and automatic chemical injection. Operators load, enter a program number, press start and walk away. Towels are consistently and automatically cleaned — with the perfect moisture retention — so they can be immediately used on vehicles. Car washes with E-Series washers not only improve productivity and eliminate washer monitoring, they eliminate the use of costly disposable towels, which ultimately end up in landfills.

E-Series Washers offer rugged, commercial-grade performance and factory-backed warranties.
